

I do not want NJ's "Do Not Call" laws weakened. We have been harrassed for years by sales people. Finally, we received great protection in NJ. We should be allowed to have stricter laws in NJ. The Federal government should allow all States to determine how they want to enforce their own laws. Thank you.